ISRAEL-HAMAS WAR

Netanyahu visits Donald Trump in Florida

JERUSALEM: Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu met with Donald Trump on Friday at the former president's Mar-a-Lago estate for their first face-to-face meeting in nearly four years as the two sought to mend their political alliance.

Netanyahu's visit to Florida came a day after the Israeli leader met in Washington with US Vice President Kamala Harris. Harris has urged Netanyahu to reach a cease-fire deal with Hamas soon so that dozens of hostages held by the militants in Gaza since October 7 could return home.

The Health Ministry in Gaza says more than 39,100 Palestinians have been killed in the war. The United Nations estimated in February that some 17,000 children in the territory are now unaccompanied, and the number is likely to have grown since.

UN agency pushes back against Israel's calls to dismantle it. The UN agency helping Palestinian refugees told the Security Council on Friday that the world body must "push against" Israel's calls to dismantle the agency and raised alarms about proposed Israeli legislation that would designate the aid agency a terrorist group.

Highlights

Netanyahu's visit to Florida came a day after the Israeli leader met in Washington with US Vice President Harris

Harris has urged Netanyahu to reach a cease-fire deal with Hamas soon so that dozens of hostages held by the militants in Gaza since October 7 could return home

"We cannot afford this to become a new standard for future humanitarian operations in conflict zones across the world," said Antonia De Meo, the deputy commissioner of the agency, known as UNRWA. She said the legislation, if passed, would threaten staff and the "entire UN system around the world."

Israel's parliament, the Knesset, is weighing measures that would brand UNRWA a "terror group" and cut diplomatic ties between Israel and the agency. UNRWA operates schools, health clinics, infrastructure projects and aid programmes in refugee camps in Gaza, the West Bank, Lebanon, Syria and Jordan. In Gaza, it has been the main supplier of food, water and shelter to civilians during the Israel-Hamas war.

Some 199 UNRWA staffers have been killed in the war, the vast majority with their families, and 560 displaced people have been killed "while sheltering under the UN flag", De Meo said. She said 190 of the agency's buildings have been hit, and many schools that were used as shelters were demolished.

President Wickremesinghe officially announces candidacy for Lankan presidency

COLOMBO: Sri Lankan President Ranil Wickremesinghe, who steered the cash-strapped island nation to a semblance of stability from bankruptcy in 2022, on Saturday declared his candidacy to contest the presidential election on September 21.

On Friday, the island nation's election commission announced that presidential polls would be held on September 21, ending the months-long speculation over the key contest.

Addressing a rally on Saturday in the southern town of Galle the 75-year-old leader said: "My coming today to this town is significant, I declare that I will contest the presidential election having already paid my deposit to do so."

There was some speculation that he may not vie for the presidency given the weak standing of his United National Party (UNP).

In 2020 the UNP suffered a serious split leading to the creation of Samagi Jana Balawegaya (SJB).
