

INDIA LEVEL THE SERIES 1-1

2nd Test: Bumrah and Ashwin craft great win for India in Vizag

'Very proud of how young side came up against England'

VISAKHAPATNAM: If white ball cricket is whiz-thud, slam-bang, Test cricket is pure and pristine. In Vizag on Monday, as this city is known in short, two consummate artists with the red cherry, Jasprit Bumrah and Ravichandran Ashwin bowled their hearts out to give India a 106-run win over England in the second Test.

India's players during the fourth day of the second Test match between India and England in Visakhapatnam on Monday

VISAKHAPATNAM: There were eight players in the starting line-up with a collective experience of only 68 Tests, five of them with match count that was not even in double digits.

No wonder skipper Rohit Sharma was proud of his inexperienced bunch pulling off an impressive 106-run victory in the second Test against an aggressive England, where the hosts didn't have the luxury of banking on the seasoned trio of Virat Kohli, Ravindra Jadeja and KL Rahul.

"(I am) very proud of such a young squad, to come up against a team like that. Lot of the guys are quite young in terms of playing this form of the game," Rohit said at the post match presentation ceremony, lauding the likes of double century Yashasvi and second innings ton-maker Shubman Gill.

Rohit knows that less experienced players are bound to make mistakes and he wants experts to cut them some slack.

"It'll take some time to be absolutely spot on. (I) want them to play freely without any pressure," Rohit said.

"The last couple of years, England have been playing good cricket. I knew it wasn't going to be an easy series. Three more to go. We'll keep our check on it and make sure we do most things right."

No praise was enough for pace spearhead Jasprit Bumrah, whose match haul of nine wickets on a sporting deck fetched him the player of the match award.

The English experts, ranging from former cricketers to the Barmy Army have been raving about the Bazball. Bull crap, if there was fire and flourish, India provided it, through four men in this Test who cornered glory. There is no need to remind fans about the high value of the double ton which Yashasvi Jaiswal scored in the first innings and Shubman Gill's return to form with a century in Vizag.

To be sure, the big deal was about how the Indian bowlers would get the wickets. A Test match win of this style needed 20 wickets, in all, to be taken. On Monday, the first day in a working week, the number of people who were watching the match was in millions.

Thanks to gadgets and gizmos, one can see cricket non-stop, even while working. It was compelling viewing on Monday where Bumrah and one man who has toiled for India in Test cricket close to 13 years, R.Ashwin, bowled their hearts out.

That Bumrah finished with a nine-wicket haul on this pitch, where conditions were hot and humid was the big story. But the narrative cannot stop without talking about the effort put in by Tam Bram Ashwin. People have said he has slowed down, he is not the best fielder.

Come on, Indian cricket has seen classy off spinners in the past like EAS Prasanna premium on fitness and how matches are now more gripping due to the use of technology based reviews. In such a scenario, for Ashwin to have reached 499 wickets is a massive. Only Anil Kumble has bagged 600 plus Test wickets and the legend of Indian cricket, Kapil Dev, finished with 434 Test wickets.

Back to Ashwin, he is an artist, a delight and someone who innovates. If an artist resorts to paint, brush and weasel to produce the strokes on canvas, this man has improved his craft every day, every match, literally every over. He has been part of all formats of cricket, red and white ball but the Tests have seen him as lord and master.

The more one watches Ashwin, the more he offers in terms of variety. He experiments, he teases, he torments, and he also lets it rip. It is amazing to watch this 37-year-old go round the wicket and bowl to a right-handed batter. Then again, when Ashwin gets to his 500th wicket in the third Test, a certainty for sure, he will become a bigger legend. He has won matches at home and abroad. Conditions have been varying for sure but Ashwin has evolved into a king, ready to handle the Duke ball as well as other varieties like SG and more. Each ball needs to be dealt with differently. In the end, it is his mastery which has got him and India wickets.

If Ashwin has been the guy to slog and also score valuable Test runs, Bumrah is a workhorse as well as a strike bowler. The English tail was wagging a bit on Monday afternoon. And, yet again, it needed that Bumrah burst to ensure India won the second Test. Deservedly, he won the man-of-the-match award. For England Ben Foakes and Tom Hartley hung around, slightly irritating the Indians and the fans. The scent of victory seemed distant. Once the atomiser spray was pressed

Winning World Cup is within India's reach: Former coach Kirsten

The latest heartbreak came in last year's 50-over showpiece in which team were outwitted by Australia

CAPE TOWN: Former India coach Gary Kirsten, who was at the helm when the team last won a World Cup back in 2011, believes that the current side has what it takes to bring home another trophy very soon.

Former Indian coach Gary Kirsten speaks to news agency in Cape Town

The South African and the then India skipper Mahendra Singh Dhoni became the toast of the nation in 2011 when the side claimed its second ODI World Cup after 1983. But the title, across formats, has eluded India for over a decade now.

The latest heartbreak came in last year's 50-over showpiece in which Rohit Sharma's men were outwitted in the final in Ahmedabad by six-time champions Australia.

"I don't think it is easy to win a World Cup, it is really tough. Probably Australia mastered that better than any other country but India has the potential to compete at the highest level for World Cup success and glory due to depth in its cricket," Kirsten, who was India's coach from 2008 to 2011, told PTT-Bhasha in an interview.

"I wouldn't be surprised if they secure a few victories soon," he added.

When asked if India can break the jinx at the upcoming T20 World Cup this year, Kirsten said it is not improbable if India can figure a way to make things right in the knockout games.

He did not, however, specify what exactly the team would need to do. "Undoubtedly winning the World Cup is within India's reach and they have the players who are capable of doing that. But there is still a lot that needs to be right to win a World Cup especially those knock-out games where anything can happen," said the 56-year-old. Talking about the general state of the game, the veteran of 185 ODIs with 6798 runs said that context is needed to keep ODI cricket alive.
