Putin blasts US 'hegemony,' predicts end to 'unipolar' world

'The situation in Ukraine shows that US is trying to drag conflict out, and it acts in exactly the same way trying to fuel conflicts in Asia, Africa and Latin America'

MOSCOW: Russian President Vladimir Putin accused the United States of trying to encourage extended hostilities in Ukraine as part of what he described Tuesday as Washington's alleged efforts to maintain its global hegemony.
Addressing a security conference attended by military officials from Africa, Asia and Latin America, Putin reaffirmed his long-held claim that he sent troops into Ukraine in response to Washington turning the country into an anti-Russia bulwark.
They need conflicts to retain their hegemony, Putin charged. That's why they have turned the Ukrainian people into cannon fodder. The situation in Ukraine shows that the United States is trying to drag the conflict out,

Russia's President and Russian Defense Minister Sergei Shoigu attend the opening of the Army 2022 International Military and Technical Forum in the Patriot Park outside Moscow, Russia and it acts in exactly the same way trying to fuel conflicts in Asia, Africa and Latin America. The speech represented the latest attempt by the Russian leader to rally support amid bruising Western sanctions that targeted the Russian economy and finance along with its government structures, top officials and businesses for Moscow's action in Ukraine.

Putin also drew parallels between the U.S. backing Ukraine and a recent visit to Taiwan by U.S. House Speaker Nancy Pelosi, charging that both were part of an alleged American attempt to foment global instability. The American adventure in Taiwan wasn't just a trip by an irresponsible politician. It was part of a deliberate and conscious U.S. strategy intended to destabilize the situation and create chaos in the region and the entire world, a blatant demonstration of disrespect for another country's sovereignty and its own international obligations, Putin said.

The Russian leader claimed that Western globalist elites "were trying" to shift the blame for their own failures to Russia and China, adding that no matter how hard the beneficiaries of the current globalist model try to cling to it, it's doomed.
The era of the unipolar world order is nearing its end," he added.
Speaking at the same conference, Russian Defense Minister Sergei Shoigu charged that along with supplies of weapons to Ukraine, Western allies also have provided detailed intelligence information and deployed instructors to help the Ukrainian military operate the weapons systems. AGENCIES

20 people killed in bus-oil tanker crash in Pak

LAHORE: At least 20 people were burnt alive and six injured in a collision between a passenger bus and an oil tanker in Pakistan's Punjab province on Tuesday, rescue officials said, the second major road accident in the province in three days.
The accident occurred on a motorway in Multan, some 350 kms from Lahore, reportedly because of overspeeding, police said.
Traffic remained suspended on the motorway for several hours after the accident.
"Twenty people died in a collision between a bus which was going to Karachi from Lahore and an oil tanker. After the collision, both the bus and tanker caught fire and the passengers were burnt alive," a Rescue 1122 spokesperson added that six passengers who suffered burn injuries were shifted to Nishtar Hospital in Multan where their condition is stated to be critical. # AFTER 2ND US CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION'S VISIT TO TAIPEI

China sanctions seven top Taiwanese officials

BEIJING: China on Tuesday announced sanctions on seven "die-hard" pro-independence Taiwanese politicians and officials, including Taipei's representative to Washington, amid concerns over the increasing visits by foreign dignitaries to the self-ruled island claimed by Beijing.
The sanctions were announced by Beijing following trips to the island by US House Speaker Nancy Pelosi in early August and a US Congressional delegation led by Democratic Senator Ed Markey on Monday.
Also last week, Lithuanian Deputy Minister of Transport and Communications Agne Vaičiukevičienė visited Taiwan. Lithuania is part of the European Union.
China has already imposed sanctions against Pelosi and Agne and held high-intensity military drills in Taiwan Strait, sparking fears of an armed conflict with Taiwan, which China claims as part of its mainland.
After Pelosi's visit, China is concerned that there will be a flurry of visits by top officials from the US and allied countries to the self-ruled island.

China announced sanctions against seven Taiwanese government officials and politicians, saying they pushed a pro-independence agenda for the breakaway island.
The Taiwan Affairs Office of the ruling Communist Party of China said on Tuesday those sanctioned and their family members would not be allowed to enter mainland China, Hong Kong or Macau. They will not be permitted to do business with the Chinese mainland.
Their affiliated companies and financial sponsors would not be allowed to gain profits from the mainland, a spokesman of the office was quoted by state-run Xinhua as saying.
The Taiwan office would take other necessary measures and those sanctioned would be held accountable for life," the spokesman said.
For a period of time, a small number of Taiwan independence die-hards have tried their best to collude with external forces to carry out independence provocations, deliberately inciting cross-strait confrontation, and wantonly undermining the peace and stability of the Taiwan Strait. They performed extremely poorly during Pelosi's trip to Taiwan, China's Taiwan Affairs Office spokesman said. AGENCIES

Feds oppose unsealing affidavit for Trump's Mar-a-Lago warrant

WASHINGTON DC: The US Justice Department on Monday rebuffed efforts to make public the affidavit supporting the search warrant for former President Donald Trump's estate in Florida, saying the investigation implicates highly classified material and the document contains sensitive information about witnesses.
The government's opposition came in response to court filings by several news organisations, including The Associated Press, seeking to unseal the underlying affidavit the Justice Department submitted when it asked for the warrant to search Trump's Mar-a-Lago estate earlier this month.
Trump, in a Truth Social post early on Tuesday called for the release of the un-redacted affidavit in the interest of transparency.
The court filing from Juan Antonio Gonzalez, the US attorney in Miami, and Jay Bratt, a top Justice Department national security official argues that making the affidavit public would cause significant and irreparable damage to this ongoing criminal investigation.
The document, the prosecutors say, details highly sensitive information about witnesses, including people who have been interviewed by the government, and contains confidential grand jury information. AGENCIES
