

Terrorists gun down two J&K policemen outside Srinagar

OUR CORRESPONDENT

SRINAGAR: A day ahead of the Independence Day, Jaish-e-Mohammad terrorists shot dead two Jammu and Kashmir policemen and wounded another in indiscriminate firing in Nowgam area on the outskirts of the Srinagar city, police said.

They said the terrorists have been identified and will be neutralised soon. Terrorists fired indiscriminately on a police party near Nowgam bypass Friday morning, a police official said, adding three policemen were injured in the attack.

The policemen were shifted to a hospital where two of them succumbed and the third was undergoing treatment, the official said.

Inspector General of Police Kashmir, Vijay Kumar, said the JeM carried out the attack.

"They fired indiscriminately and two of our jawans were martyred... We have identified them, they belong to JeM group. We will neutralise them soon," Kumar told reporters near the site of the attack. Asked whether there were any inputs about a possible terrorist attack on the eve of the Independence Day, the IGP said the police get such inputs every year.

"We have such inputs every year before August 15 and January 26. We had inputs that they will try (an attack) in some area. The boys were alert and prepared, but they (the militants) came from the rear side and fired on them.

'Local political differences, SDPI's conspiracy behind B'luru violence'

Role of local corporators coming out one after the other, says Bommai

BENGALURU: Local level "political differences" and SDPI's larger conspiracy to disturb law and order were among the reasons behind the recent violence here, Karnataka Home Minister Basavaraj Bommai said on Friday.

Further investigations were going on into all these aspects, he told reporters here after meeting Chief Minister B S Yediyurappa.

He also said 60 people were arrested on Thursday night, taking the total detentions to over 200 so far in connection with the mob violence on Tuesday night in Pulakeshinagar assembly constituency area that led to police firing and death of three people.

Khaleem Pasha, the husband of city Corporator Irshaad Begum, was among the 60 arrested.

"Political differences there (in Pulakeshinagar) and matters related to previous election, also upcoming election (to city civic body) and related matters are all involved in it (violence)," Bommai said.

Along with political differences, 'conspiracy' by the Social Democratic Party of India (SDPI) to disturb the law and order situation was also behind the violence by a large number of people protesting a communally sensitive social media post.

"I have already said that we are deeply investigating the SDPI's role and along with that the role of local corporators is all coming out one after the other, investigations are on.

Around 206 people have been arrested so far," he added.

There are reports that local politics with an eye on coming polls to the city civic body Bruhat Bengaluru MahanagaraPalike might have also added to the fury, pointing at alleged differences between local corporators and MLA AkhandaSrinivasa Murthy, who had joined Congress from JD(S).

Reports have also said SDPI was keen to gain ground in the locality, that has a considerable Muslim population.

Responding to a question regarding this, Bommai said it had come to light from investigation so far about differences within the Congress and also differences between Congress and the SDPI locally.

"The split and friction that was caused during the previous election... also upcoming elections. Along with this the larger conspiracy of SDPI - violence and targeting police stations all (these) involved. We are investigating this further," the Home Minister said.

The violence in D J Halli and adjoining areas on Tuesday night was unleashed by hundreds of people over an inflammatory social media post allegedly put out by P Naveen, a relative of Pulakeshinagar MLA R AkhandaSrinivasa Murthy of Congress.

The MLAs residence and a police station at D J Halli were torched by rioters who also set many police and private vehicles afire, and looted the belongings of the legislator and his sister.

Noting that 60 people arrested last night were being investigated and their background looked into, Bommai said this operation will continue.

"We have given directions to officers to take all steps to put a permanent end to anti-social elements and their activities," he said. AGENCIES

Chh'garh tops in cleanliness again, winner in Swachh Survekshan

RAIPUR: Chhattisgarh has once again won the world's largest sanitation competition organized by the Ministry of Housing and Urban Affairs, Government of India.

Urban cleanliness is assessed by the Government of India every year in a Swachh Survekshan conducted between all cities and states of the country on different scales.

It mainly involves ranking of states and cities through third party assessment of door to door garbage collection, scientific disposal of waste, open defecation free city and waste free city star rating by incorporating citizen feedback.

States and cities with excellent performance are rewarded.

It has been informed by the Government of India that this year, Chhattisgarh has done its best in the field of cleanliness while retaining its status of the cleanest state of the country.

Chhattisgarh will be awarded by Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi on August 20, 2020. AGENCIES
